

Using Your IRA to Support House of Ruth

Thank you supporting our shared mission to empower women, children, and families to rebuild their lives and heal from trauma, abuse, and houselessness!

If you are 70½ or older, you can make a tax-free distribution from your traditional or Roth IRA to House of Ruth.

1. Contact your IRA administration or advisor with your donation intentions and ask them to send a check for a “qualified charitable distribution” to House of Ruth.

House of Ruth EIN: 52-1054102

House of Ruth
5 Thomas Circle, NW
4th Floor
Washington, DC 20005-4153

2. Ask your administration to include your name and address on the paperwork. This will ensure we know that the gift came from you.
3. To ensure we know of your gift and that you receive an acknowledgement, please notify us which financial institution will be sending your gift and the approximate value.

Please send to:
Megan Cooke, Chief Development Officer
mcooke@houseofruth.org

House of Ruth
5 Thomas Circle, NW
Washington, DC 20005-4153
202-597-5803 (direct line)

Please Note

If you are still working and contributing to a retirement account, this gift could impact your taxable income. Please consult a qualified advisor before making a gift. If you're under the age of 70½, you can use your IRA to support House of Ruth by making a

HOUSE OF RUTH

Hope Starts Here

withdrawal and donating the proceeds after taxes OR by designating House of Ruth as a beneficiary of your retirement plan.